

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 338

January 26, 2021

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes the restoration of voting rights for persons paying a portion of child support obligations each month, rather than be current on all such obligations.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-29-202(b), a person shall not be eligible to have voting rights restored unless the person has paid all restitution to any victims, has paid all court costs due at the conclusion of the person's trial, and is current on all child support obligations.
- The proposed legislation will authorize such right to be restored if the person is paying a portion of child support obligations each month.
- Restoration of voting rights for such persons will not result in any significant fiscal impact to state or local government.
